DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to the application filed March 9, 2004.

Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-21 drawn to device, classified in class 257, subclass 778.
- II. Claims 22 , drawn to method, classified in class 438, subclass 106.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

First, inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made.

The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process, such as without providing an additional substrate. In addition, the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product. To further clarify, because the transitional claim language "comprising" is inclusive of additional process steps other than the particular recited steps, the scope of the process claims encompasses a step of offsetting the pads of the first chip/die in order to make a final product with the pads of the first chip not aligned with a passage in an intermediate substrate.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

If applicant elects Group I, this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: the species of:

- A1) an assembly including a heat sink;
- A2) an assembly with no heat sink.

Upon electing a species, applicant must elect from the following subspecies:

- B1) an assembly with a single intermediate substrate;
- B2) an assembly with both first and second intermediate substrates.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no claims generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
